

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Computer Science

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

Urbana, IL

2020 – 2026

- Thesis: “Integrating Institutional Trust into Community-Based Decision-Making Algorithms”
- Advised by Hari Sundaram

B.S. in Applied Mathematics & B.A. in Philosophy

UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, PA

2016 – 2020

- Minor in Computer Science

WORK EXPERIENCE

Assistant Instructional Professor of Data Science

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

Sept 2026 – Present

- Teaching-track academic position in the Data Science Institute

INSTRUCTIONAL EXPERIENCE

CS 173: Discrete Structures

INSTRUCTOR OF RECORD · 50 – 800 STUDENTS

University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

SU25, SP25, FA24, SU24

- In-person, hybrid, and online modalities
- Individual and co-instruction with Professors Margaret Fleck, G.C. Evans, and Hongxuan Chen
- Designed and delivered weekly lectures, alongside lecture notes
- Designed weekly homework assignments, discussion problem sets, and exams, alongside rubrics and solutions
- Guided students through weekly group problem solving sessions
- Guided course staff (up to 44 staff members) through grading assignments and providing in-class help
- Held one weekly office hour
- Posted all assignments on our online learning platform (PrairieLearn) and handled the course websites

TEACHING ASSISTANCE

CS 173: Discrete Structures

HEAD TA

University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

FA25, SP24, FA23, SP23

- Designed rubrics for biweekly exams, and shared with students and staff
- Developed and ran a 75-minute weekly problem walkthrough session with help from CS Education Researchers
- Delegated additional tasks to TAs
- Graded exams
- Held one weekly office hour
- Assisted students in a weekly 75-minute group problem solving session

CS 173: Discrete Structures

University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

TA

SP26, FA22, SU22, SP22, FA22, SU21, SP21

- Graded exams and discussion problems
- Held one weekly office hour
- Assisted students in a weekly 75-minute group problem solving session

CS 125: Intro to Computer Science

University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

TA

FA20

- Designed and ran a weekly quiz-prep session
- Held weekly office hours

Undergraduate Mathematics TA

University of Pittsburgh

PREP FOR BUSINESS CALCULUS, COLLEGE ALGEBRA

SP20, FA19, SP19, FA18

- Held weekly office hours and tutored in the Math Assistance Center
- Designed quiz review sessions and proctored quizzes
